1100 – 1130 FAITHS Throughcare Program - Christopher Vallejo, Executive Director
Evan Thomas, Director of Reentry Operations

In partnership with California State University, San Bernardino, FAITHS (Family Attachment Through Healing Solutions) is an innovative in-custody and out-of-custody psychotherapeutic program providing targeted trauma-informed intervention to justice-involved individuals and their families.

The goals of this program include improving family relations, mitigating factors leading to self-destructive life patterns, reducing recidivism, and breaking the intergenerational cycle of incarceration.

By utilizing graduate level interns from the Social and Behavioral Sciences departments of various university partners, a highly educated workforce is specifically trained to facilitate research-based interventions at a substantial cost savings to the county and allowing for ongoing expansion of services.

1130 – 1200 DRC (Disability Rights California) and Consent Decree, A Cautionary Tale – Deirdre Smith, Programs Manager, Santa Barbara Sheriff's Department

DRC is a non-profit organization that defends, advances, and strengthens the rights and opportunities of people with disabilities. They work in litigation, legal representation, advocacy services, investigations, public policy, and provide information, advice, referral, and community outreach. Santa Barbara Sheriff's Department will share information regarding the class action lawsuit that resulted in a consent decree.
