

"Creating Opportunities for Change"

An organization for Jail Professionals who provide programs and services to California Inmates.

California Jail Programs Association (CJPA) website: www.cjpa.org

Please visit the CJPA website to learn more about how and why the Association was created. The website contains information about our By-Laws, Constitution, Events (conferences) and Membership application & payment instructions.

CJPA Membership will provide you access to our Members Directory/Roster with names and contact information for professionals and colleagues throughout California.

Types/Levels of Membership:

Voting Members: are individuals who perform the duties of the Program Manager, which manages multiple programs in a correctional/detention facility. Limited to one member per county/city agency. Eligible to serve as a CJPA Board Officer. Dues: $100 per calendar year

Associate Members: are individuals who perform duties in detention/correctional facilities related to delivery of Inmate Programs such as (but not limited to): education, vocation, treatment, counseling, religious, and re-reentry. Dues: $25 per calendar year

Vendor-Sponsor: are businesses that provide product as services to correction/detention facilities. These services include, but are not limited to: inmate phones/communications, commissary, food/meals, and education curriculum. Visit the CJPA website "Vendors" tab to learn more about the benefits of this level of membership. Dues: $500 per calendar year

How to become a CJPA Member:

To become a Voting or Associate member, click on the "Join" tab on the CJPA website to apply and pay on-line. If you are unable to pay on-line, there are instructions on how to print a paper application and send payment via a check.

To become a Vendor-Sponsor member, click on the "Become a Vendor" option under the "Vendor" tab on the CJPA website to apply and pay on-line. If you are unable to pay on-line, there are instructions on how to print a paper application and send payment via a check.

*If your current membership has expired and you want to renew your membership: You must first log on to the website under the "Member login" tab. You should receive a notification that your membership has expired. Voting and Associate members should be able to review the auto-populated membership application and then submit on-line payment. Vendor-Sponsor members need to follow the "Vendor Renewal" link under the "Vendor" tab to review the auto-populated membership application and then submit on-line payment.

For expired Voting, Associate and Vendor-Sponsor members, you still have the option to submit paper application with payment via check.